

Dear Carlyn, due to one of our team becoming ill we are home a week early but had a spirit filled time serving our Lord. The phone worked well and had no difficulty with it except when you are dropped due to satellite connection. Minimal problems considering the benefits for sure. It charged up well on the solar panel I had and was great to keep in contact with the family. The texting was also very helpful in reaching out to others. Thanks again.

Kevin Steckline
South New Berlin, NY